Questions:

Please do not just think about these questions, but take time to write your responses to them during the week, and consider sharing one or two with your group when you meet.

Are there any parts of the passage in Genesis 28:10-22 that are confusing? Consider discussing these as a group.

Do you have a tendency to drift to either apathy or legalism in your relationship with God? Can you describe how this plays out in your life?

If we're now fully accepted by God, what's our new motivation to live by God's commandments? How should we go about this obedience?
